

Student Conduct

The Conduct in Residence Guidelines are supported by the Institute's Student Code of Conduct. A finding of misconduct under the Student Code of Conduct may lead to penalties, which may include warning, restriction or exclusion from the Residences or the Institute. By accepting the offer of accommodation, students agree to abide by the rules and regulations of the Guidelines and agree to:

1. CONDUCT IN RESIDENCE

- 1.1 Act in a considerate manner towards your fellow residents and staff at all times.
- 1.2 Stay within the designated Men's and or Women's residences as allocated.
- 1.3 Respect the rights and property of others and agree to only enter another resident's room when invited.
- 1.4 Only use another resident's property with their permission.
- 1.5 Have respect for common property (e.g. kitchens, furniture, common rooms and laundries).
- 1.6 Have respect for other residents privacy and quiet enjoyment.
- 1.7 Not to act in a reckless or dangerous manner that potentially can cause harm to self, others or damage the facility.
- 1.8 Take responsibility for your own health and wellbeing.
- 1.9 Accept the cultural diversity of backgrounds and beliefs of other residents and abide by the Student Code of Conduct.
- 1.10 To not smoke outside of the designated areas as noted on the Campus Map.
- 1.11 Observe the noise, alcohol and safety instructions of the guidelines.
- 1.12 Take responsibility for the security of your own property and the property of others.
- 1.13 Participate fully and equally in maintaining your residence in a clean, comfortable and hygienic condition at all times.
- 1.14 Commit to your own academic success and actively support the academic success of fellow residents.
- 1.15 Take responsibility for your actions and admit when you have been wrong.
- 1.16 Maintain open and honest communication with other residents and staff at all times.
- 1.17 Ensure that furniture and equipment provided in common areas and residents rooms, remains where located and is not to be moved/relocated by residents. While chairs (excluding soft furnishings) may be taken outside for temporary use, they must be immediately returned to their correct room immediately after use.
